ACTIVITIES

Whether you're a guest on the ever-elegant Zambezi Queen houseboat, one of her three Chobe Princesses, or at the secluded tented Ichingo Chobe River Lodge, you'll be able to experience unique water-based safaris on the Chobe River that borders Namibia and Botswana.

We offer a wide variety of experiences at our properties, ranging from tiger fishing along the Chobe River to our cultural tours where you can meet the Subiya tribe villagers and gain a greater understanding of how the inhabitants of this 100-year old village live.

CULTURAL TOURS

Travel by tender boat to a local Namibian village on the floodplains of the East Caprivi. Meet the Subiya tribe village elders and locals and gain a greater understanding of how the inhabitants of this 100-year old village live, including learning more about their daily challenges and traditions.

BIRD WATCHING

With over 450 species, a mix of terrains and a dramatic African backdrop, the Chobe River is the perfect setting for a highly rewarding birdwatching safari. Birding season starts in September, when the first migrants arrive, boosting the bird population by up to 20% compared to the winter months.

GAME VIEWING

Each day you'll venture out by tender boat to get up close and personal with huge herds of elephant, buffalo, lion, crocodile, zebra and more that are drawn to the water. You'll also see a huge variety of birdlife and plant life as you breathe in African air around you.

PHOTOGRAPHIC SAFARIS

Uninterrupted access to wild animals. Absolute silence. Golden light. The Chobe River is an unforgettable photographic safari destination, and one of the wildlife photographers' hotspots in Africa. And, because this is a water-based safari, you'll be able to take unique shots in a safe environment.

FISHING EXCURSIONS

No trip to the Chobe is complete without trying your hand at a fishing safari. Hook a tiger fish, or one of the many bream species, African pike, tilapia, catfish or upper Zambezi yellowfish as you explore mile upon mile of the Chobe and Zambezi Rivers.
